

SAVE THE DATE

2006 PA School-Based Behavioral Health Conference

“Creating Partnerships”

May 3-5, 2006
Holiday Inn Harrisburg/Hershey
Grantville, PA

A collaborative effort between the PA Departments of Education and Public Welfare

Planned by:
PA Training and Technical Assistance Network (PaTTAN)
PA CASSP Training and Technical Assistance Institute

Target Audience

- Staff from regular and special education, student assistance, mental health, mental retardation, child welfare, juvenile justice, drug and alcohol, and vocational rehabilitation programs
- Family members, caregivers, and advocates
- Youth and young adults
- Medical assistance program staff and Managed Care Organization staff
- County CASSP Coordinators
- School and clinical psychologists, psychiatrists
- Local government officials

Conference Highlights

- Keynote addresses on national perspectives on school-based behavioral health
- A variety of sessions on evidenced-based school behavioral health programs and services
- Youth and young adult perspectives on receiving school-based behavioral health services

For additional information: Ron Sudano - PaTTAN PGH 800-446-5607 Ext. 6868 or rsudano@pattan.net