

Understanding Provider Financial Incentives Under HITECH and Meeting the Meaningful Use Requirements

September 20, 1:00 - 3:00 p.m., via webinar

Program:

The webinar will outline the requirements for providers to obtain the financial incentives for using and purchasing certified Electronic Health Records (EHR) under either the Medicare or Medicaid program. The meaningful use requirements and the certification requirements for EHR technology under recently released regulations issued by the US Department of Health and Human Services will also be discussed. In addition, contractual implications with providers will be addressed.

Note: A high speed Internet connection and phone line is required. Access information will be sent to registrants no later than two business days prior to the webinar. PCPA is not responsible for individual technical failures resulting in an inability to participate in a webinar. Participants are encouraged to test their system prior to the event.

Presenters:

Susan Orr, Esq., Tsoules, Sweeney, Martin & Orr, LLC, represents and advises health care providers on a variety of regulatory and transactional areas including medical records, privacy and confidentiality issues (HIPAA), fraud and abuse, health care compliance, and provider and facility licensing. Having served as practice administrator for her husband's medical practice for 12 years, Ms. Orr is uniquely qualified to assist clients on practice management issues including reimbursement and payment issues, Medicare and Medicaid compliance, managed care, employment issues, professional practice formation, health care affiliations, joint ventures, and contractual arrangements. Her practice is enhanced by her law school experience as a research assistant to Barry Furrow, director of the Health Law Institute at Widener University School of Law.

Tom Sweeney, Esq., Tsoules, Sweeney, Martin & Orr, LLC, has practiced exclusively in the health law field since 1980. He has specialized and lectured in the areas of Medicare and Medicaid enforcement, mental and behavioral health issues, compliance plans, HIPAA privacy regulations, managed care contracting, joint ventures, corporate governance and organization, medical staff matters, and professional licensure. Mr. Sweeney regularly lectures for a variety of trade organizations, including the Pennsylvania Psychological Association and the Pennsylvania Community Providers Association.

Target Audience: CEOs, Executive Directors, COOs, Medical Directors, CIOs, CFOs
