

What Is a PAC?

A PAC (political action committee) is composed of individuals who join together to support candidates who share the group's basic philosophies or similar views. While the RCPA PAC does not affiliate itself with a particular political party, it supports those candidates who are closely aligned with and support the mission of RCPA.

While your individual voice is very important in the legislative arena, sometimes we are most effective when working in collaboration. The RCPA PAC is a wonderful opportunity for those concerned with mental health, substance use, intellectual disability, autism, developmental disability, vocational, residential, medical rehabilitation, brain trauma, and other related human services for children and adults to come together and have our voices heard!

The PAC is a separate entity from RCPA. Member dues are not part of PAC funds; rather, PAC donations are solicited independently from individual employees of RCPA members.

About RCPA

With more than 300 members serving Pennsylvanians in every county, RCPA is among the largest and most diverse state health and human services trade associations in the nation. RCPA advocates for those in need, works to advance effective state and federal public policies, and provides professional support to members.

What might be accomplished with your PAC contribution?

- ★ Meet with legislators to create necessary programs, improve current systems, and develop new funding methods
- ★ Influence administrative policy and actions
- ★ Secure additional recruitment and retention funds
- ★ Put health and human services issues at the top of Pennsylvania's list
