Everyday Lives Conference Professional Development Credit Hours Certificates Available

ODP Communication Number: Announcement 054-16

The mission of the Office of Developmental Programs is to support Pennsylvanians with developmental disabilities to achieve greater independence, choice and opportunity in their lives.

ODP's Everyday Lives Conference - September 14-16, 2016 - Hershey, PA- Registration Now Open

AUDIENCE: All interested parties

PURPOSE: To advise that professional development credit hours will be available to participants attending each day of the Everyday Lives Conference. This will include the pre-conference day of September 13, 2016.

DISCUSSION: Individuals attending the Everyday Lives Conference will be able to request certificates at the conference information desk at the end of each day. These certificates will show professional development credit hours. Credit hours will vary by day according to scheduled sessions and keynote speakers. Certificates will not be customized by person, but will serve as a general record of attendance and participation on that day. It is the responsibility of the participant to confer with their supervisor or agency as to how the professional development hours will be documented in the individual training record.

Please see link below for registration for the Everyday Lives Conference. Please note, registration closes on September 1, 2016.
