Lisa Musselman Named Executive Director of Citizen Care

PITTSBURGH, PA, January 8, 2021 – Partners For Quality is pleased to announce that Lisa Musselman has been named the Executive Director of Citizen Care, a member of the Partners For Quality family of agencies. Musselman brings a stellar reputation to lead the heritage nonprofit agency that supports local individuals with intellectual and developmental disabilities. She begins her new role January 19.

Musselman comes to Citizen Care with an extensive background in leadership at nonprofit intellectual & developmental disability providers. Most recently, she served as Vice President of Operations at Peaceful Living in Eastern Pennsylvania. Her career also includes leadership roles at Step By Step, Easter Seals and Via of the Lehigh Valley.

“We are excited to have a person of Lisa’s caliber leading Citizen Care,” said Maggie Rothenberger, President and CEO of Partners For Quality. “Lisa has expertise in every facet of Citizen Care’s service lines; she is passionate about the persons we support and values front line staff.”

“I’m very happy to have the opportunity to lead an organization with Citizen Care’s reputation and history,” Musselman said. “And I look forward to getting acquainted with not only the staff, but the whole Pittsburgh area.”

Musselman has an impressive track record of developing and implementing residential, day program, supported employment, life sharing, community supports and behavioral support programs. She has successfully managed licensing, new service launches and collaborations with the Pennsylvania Office of Developmental Programs.

Lisa’s husband Barry is relocating with her to the Pittsburgh area.
