Michael Quinn has nearly 40 years experience in various leadership roles across a variety of behavioral health settings. Mr. Quinn followed his Bachelor's in Psychology with a Master's degree in Health Administration, both from the University of Pittsburgh. After a stint as Assistant Administrator for a for profit psychiatric hospital in Rockville, Maryland. Michael returned to Western Pennsylvania area and lead both inpatient and ambulatory programs in the greater Pittsburgh region. As CEO of Chestnut Ridge Counseling Services for 25 years, Mike has had integral role in shaping the social service/healthcare system in Fayette. As a long-term member, and previous Board member of RCPA, Mike was involved in the evolution of the Healthchoices program: supporting both the Carve Out model and promoting each county's ability to customize their approach to locally manage the behavioral health medical assistance dollars. Currently Mike demonstrates his commitment to RCPA as Co-chair of the Mental Health Committee and continues as Co-chair of the Beacon Health Options Provider Advisory Council.
