

The Venango Training & Development Center, Inc. welcomes Kevin Wingard as our new Production Operations Director. Starting on June 6th, Kevin hit the ground running. He will tell you his greatest accomplishment was completing 21 years on Active Duty in the US Army and traveling the world. During that time, he lived in Hawaii, Germany, Alaska, Mississippi, Kansas, Texas, California, and New Jersey. He retired from the service after working in construction operations in a Sr. Level Management position. A Clarion native, he returned to the area and comes to us with over 10 years working in industry as an operations manager in a hospital, an administrator for pallet manufacturing, production supervisor for two plastics manufacturing companies, safety director, and a quality control and materials coordinator. In addition, Kevin worked one year in social services at a County Assistance Office as an income maintenance caseworker. He has a Master of Science in Occupational Safety and Health, a Bachelor of Science in Occupational Safety and Health and a Bachelor of Science in Human Resource Management. Kevin is the father of 4 grown children, three boys and one girl. He enjoys having family over to visit, BBQs, riding four wheelers, swimming, kayaking, hiking, traveling, and working in his wood shop.
