Via of the Lehigh Valley Announces Staff Promotions

BETHLEHEM, PA (June 21, 2023) – Via of the Lehigh Valley is pleased to announce a staff promotion.

Lauren Goldberg has been promoted to Program Manager for Via’s Adult Training Services. Goldberg started her career at Via in 2015 working as a Direct Support Professional. She also worked as a Small Group Employment Job Coach and Creative Expressions Program Coordinator.

In her new role, Goldberg will oversee the operations of Via’s two Adult Training Service sites, Creative Expressions at the John E. Walson Center in Bethlehem and the Kristi Hanawalt Life Skills Center in Allentown.

Goldberg holds a Bachelor of Arts degree from Smith College and a Master’s Degree in Education from Monmouth University.

About Via of the Lehigh Valley

Serving our community since 1952, Via helps people reach their full potential. In a typical year, Via provides services to 1,000 children and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities living in Lehigh, Northampton, Carbon, Monroe, Bucks and Berks counties. These services include vocational exploration, community employment, educational activities, volunteer and recreational opportunities for teens and adults and early intervention therapies and inclusive education for young children.
